

February 20, 2020

Paul Christoff proposed as President and CEO of SCOR Canada Reinsurance Company

SCOR announces that Paul Christoff will be proposed as President and CEO of SCOR Canada Reinsurance Company, subject to necessary regulatory formalities. He retains his responsibilities as Managing Director and Chief Financial Officer of the Americas Hub.

Joseph El-Sayegh, who joined SCOR in 2000 and who until now served as President and CEO of SCOR Canada, has left the company to pursue other career opportunities.

Jean-Paul Conoscente, CEO of SCOR Global P&C, comments: “We wish Joseph well in his future endeavors after 19 years of active service at SCOR, notably at the helm of SCOR Canada which is firmly established as a Tier 1 reinsurer with long-standing business relationships on this market.”

Carol Lyons, Chair of SCOR Canada’s Board of Directors, adds: “SCOR is a key player in the Canadian marketplace and has a demonstrated track record of success. We are excited to welcome Paul to the team and look forward to his contribution to the company’s continued achievement of its goals.”

*

* *

Paul Christoff, 48, is a Canadian citizen and a graduate of the University of Toronto, having obtained a degree in commerce and finance. He also holds a Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA) designation. Prior to joining SCOR in 2009, he held senior positions in the P&C industry, both in operations and finance. He has been serving as Managing Director and Chief Financial Officer of the Americas Hub since 2017.

*

* *

Contact details

Media

Anette Rey
+33 (0)1 58 44 82 82
arey@scor.com

www.scor.com

LinkedIn: SCOR | Twitter: @SCOR_SE