The SCOR Foundation for Science awards Prize for Best Young Researcher in Finance and Insurance

At the 10th International Forum on Financial Risks, organized in Paris by the Europlace Institute of Finance, the SCOR Foundation for Science presented the Award for Best Young Researcher in Finance and Insurance today to Dylan Possamaï, Professor at the Paris-Dauphine University, for all his work on risk and its quantifications. The jury was chaired by Elyès Jouini, Vice-President of the Paris-Dauphine University and member of the Institut Universitaire de France. This award is financed by the SCOR Foundation for Science.

André Levy-Lang, Chairman of the SCOR Foundation for Science and the European Institute of Finance, comments: "There have been significant developments in risk and risk quantification research in recent years, to which Dylan Possamaï, a young researcher in finance, has made a noteworthy contribution. The SCOR Foundation for Science is very happy to single this contribution out."

Denis Kessler, Chairman and CEO of SCOR comments: "I am delighted that the SCOR group and its Foundation for Science are supporting scientific risk research and encouraging an increasing number of talented young people to devote their academic work to advancing our knowledge in this area."

Press Release

28 March 2017 - N° 09

Forward-looking statements

SCOR does not communicate "profit forecasts" in the sense of Article 2 of (EC) Regulation n°809/2004 of the European Commission. Thus, any forward-looking statements contained in this communication should not be held as corresponding to such profit forecasts. Information in this communication may include "forward-looking statements", including but not limited to statements that are predictions of or indicate future events, trends, plans or objectives, based on certain assumptions and include any statement which does not directly relate to a historical fact or current fact. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words or phrases such as, without limitation, "anticipate", "assume", "believe", "continue", "estimate", "expect", "foresee", "intend", "may increase" and "may fluctuate" and similar expressions or by future or conditional verbs such as, without limitations, "will", "should", "would" and "could." Undue reliance should not be placed on such statements, because, by their nature, they are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, which may cause actual results, on the one hand, to differ from any results expressed or implied by the present communication, on the other hand.

Please refer to the 2016 reference document filed on 3 March 2017 under number D.17-0123 with the French Autorité des marchés financiers (AMF) posted on SCOR's website www.scor.com (the "Document de Référence"), for a description of certain important factors, risks and uncertainties that may affect the business of the SCOR Group. As a result of the extreme and unprecedented volatility and disruption of the current global financial crisis, SCOR is exposed to significant financial, capital market and other risks, including movements in interest rates, credit spreads, equity prices, and currency movements, changes in rating agency policies or practices, and the lowering or loss of financial strength or other ratings.
